SECTION - I

Q. 1. Explain with reference to the context any three of the following passages : 3×5=15

(i) In what distant deeps or skies,

Burnt the fire of thine eyes ?

On what wings dare he aspire ?

What the hand, dare seize the fire ?

(ii) Behold her, single in the field,

You solitary Highland lass !

Reaping and singing by herself;

Stop here, or gently pass !

(iii) Hail to thee, blithe spirit !

Bird thou never wert !

That from heaven, or near it,

Prourest thy full heart

In profuse strains of unpremeditated art.

(iv) Fear death ? To feel the fog in my throat,

The mist in my face,

When the snows begin, and the blasts

denote

I am nearing the place.

(v) Children love to listen to stories about their elders, when they were children; to stretch

their imagination to the conception of a traditionary great-uncle or grandame, whom they never saw. It was in this spirit that my little ones crept about me the other evening

(3)

to hear about their great grandmother Field,

who lived in a great house in Norfolk (a hundred times bigger than that in which they

and papa lived) which had been the scene –

so at least it was generally believed in that part of the country – of the tragic incidents which they had lately become familiar with

from the ballad of the children in the wood.

(vi) Actors have been accused, as a profession of being extravagant and dissipated. While they are said to be so as a piece of common cant, they are likely to continue so.
